

Replacement Probes

Kitchen Measurement Tools

A new retail line for add-on sales and customer convenience, CDN now offers replacement probes for the company's probe thermometers.

The replacement probes can be merchandised with CDN's top-of-the-line probe thermometer collection, designed for both professional chefs and home cooking enthusiasts, with highly accurate readings in a wide temperature range.

Ideal for add-on sales, the replacement probes feature a grab-and-go hang tag design that fits compactly next to CDN thermometers near the register or on the shelf. Customers will appreciate the convenience of purchasing the thermometer and its replacement probe in one smart location.
